LONDON, Oct. 28.—A special from Berlin says: It is now settled that Prince Frederick William will participate with his wife in the Centennial Exhibition. It is also stated that his eldest son will accompany him.

7 A. M.—A special from Berlin says: A council of physicians, acting in behalf of the Supreme Court, have declared Count Von Arnim unable to order the long imprisonment to which he has been sentenced.

BERLIN, Oct. 28.—Emperor William was absent at the opening of the German Parliament on account of indisposition. His speech was read by

A letter to the Times from Berlin states as a result of the conferences in Vienna, the powers have determined to ask Turkey whether she has any guarantees to offer for the fulfilment of her often broken promise of reform.

PENANG, Nov. 3.—A British resident has been murdered on Malayan territory, and troops have been sent there to punish the murderers.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—The proceedings of the Third District Court of Utah, ordering the imprishim to Eliza Young, have been brought to the attention of the Attorney General, and will be made the subject of Cabinet consideration, with a view of determining the exact status of the case. The question presented is whether the arrest of Brigham Young could be made on the grounds claimed by the woman, for the reason that her marriage with Young was illegal, being contrary to the laws of the United States, and that she can-

VIENNA, Nov. 4.—The Neufree Press, of this city, states that the Herzegovinian insurgents recently received a thousand breech-loading rifles from Montenegro. The Waywooda, or military council, of Montenegro and Herzegovina has convoked an Assembly for the purpose of proclaiming a National Government.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—The London Morning Post of October 23d, has a Berlin dispatch of the 22d, saying: "The depression of trade is felt so keenly in Germany, that the Government has been requested as a means of preventing acute distress, to resort to a measure successfully adopted in the last two wars, namely, the establishment of loan banks. The Government has not as yet taken any definite action, but it is expected that serious distress is anticipated among the industrial classes."

VERMONT, Nov. 4.—The Duke D'André of Pasquie was today elected President of the Assembly by a combination of the Left with a portion of the Right. This is regarded as a demonstration against the Bonapartists.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—At Creedmore, to-day, the shooting of George's bull's-eye badge was finally won by Leonard Feig of Hudson, who had been having won it twice before. This badge was presented to the Amateur Rifle Club by Mr. George Crouch. Feiger's score to-day was 179 out of a possible 200. Leonard Feig was followed, with a score of 176. Each made 22 bull's-eyes.

BRUSSELS, Nov. 6.—The Le Nord of this city publishes the following: Date Rescye Regna.

by Musselmen toward Christians at Herzegovina. Secret meetings are being held in the Mosques, and in the houses of the Musselmen, for the purpose of a general massacre of Christians at Mostar, Benna, and other localities. The secrets are unknown to Servia. Pachá.

CONSTANTINOPLE, NOV. 7.—The truth of the death from Ragusa, published in L'Nord, of Brnsé, is now being republished in the Journal de Constantinople. The death of Brnsé, a Frenchman, at Herzegovina, was exaggerated and preparing to massacre the Christians, is officially denied.

BROOKLYN, NOV. 6.—Since Mr. Moulton's written charges against Beecher have been referred to the Examining Commission of Plymouth Church, to be acted on as the Commission see fit, there has arisen considerable speculation among Beecher's congregseveral weeks before the Commission began its work of investigation. It is learned that they have been directed to review all the evidence in the case, both that which was presented in Court and that which was withheld. The review will probably involve considerable time, and it may be many months, therefore, before anything like a report is reached.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—The latest mail advices from England contain gloomy reports of the recent flooding in the North of England. At Nottingham thirteen persons were drowned, more than thirty houses were inundated and fifty factories stopped. Near Oxford the railway lines were all inundated with water, and the village of Batemey was entirely submerged. At Burton-on-Trent a bridge was drowned, and at Derby the water is still and give elaborate and picturesque accounts of the continuation and conclusion of his examination of the shores of the Hellespont. They confirm Speke's views, that the great lake is our large body of water, and not a series of small lakes, as held by Dr. Livingstone. Stanley's observations and reports on this point to African geography are so made as to make it impossible for the Royal Geographical Society on the 15th instant.

LONDON, Nov. 8.—It is rumored here that a split has occurred in the alliance formed between Austria, Russia and Germany regarding the Herzegovinian troubles. Austria threatens to occupy the territory of the Herzegovina, and Russia is determined to keep possession of the Danubian Principalities. Should this happen, England will seize Egypt and the island of Crete.

be found to bring about a satisfactory result consistent with the maintenance of the peace of Europe. The Government will not say anything more. The interests of the Imperial Powers in reference to the question, are more direct, but not more considerable than those of Great Britain. The men who have charge of our affairs are deeply conscious of the magnitude of the questions, which they are resolved to guard and maintain."

Mr. Disraeli, after a glowing reference to the Indian, domestic and Colonial affairs, concluded his speech with the words: "I speak again for the next year, I hope to be able to congratulate you again upon the maintenance of peace, and I trust, also, on success in our domestic policy, so if an exigency should arise and the sovereign be called upon to do so, I shall be ready to do so myself, and to appeal to a contented and confiding people."

despatches announcing that the British residence, at Penang, which was besieged by Malaysians, was relieved on the 6th instant. Captain Jones was killed in an unsuccessful attack on a neighboring stockade.
